Western Heights

From afar, may present a facade of bricks and mortar, but those who understand and love it REFLECT a more vital essence--a spirit that gives life and continuity
 --a quality that imparts to all who accept it

PRIDE IN ACHIEVEMENT
 SPIRIT IN UNITY
 HONOR IN TRADITION
 FAITH IN TOMORROW

We Salute . . .

. . . those who serve our country with pride, courage, and dignity. As students of Western Heights High School, we can accept with quiet pride the fact that the heritage of our American soldier is inseparable from the traditions and heritage of our country.

The American soldier must be versatile and suited to our times. He must feel at home in an age of nuclear warheads, jet aircraft and communication satellites. He must be able to perform effectively in any type of terrain and under any conditions of weather for the cause of freedom. He remains the vital ingredient. No machine, no computer, no fantastic weaponry of air, land or sea will take his place.

We dedicate our yearbook, Flight VII 1968, to American servicemen around the world.

Students expect to arrive at a clean and comfortable school building, to choose the kind of food that they want and need during their lunch hour, and to use facilities that are in good condition.

To satisfy these students and keep the school running smoothly, the Western Heights staff includes a group of nineteen custodians headed by Clair Young.

Cafeteria manager, Jane Renshaw, plans balanced diets with the help of the other cafeteria workers. They must make sure there is enough, and a large variety of food for each lunch hour. All these workers are a necessary part of every school day as they exhibit the same spirit of good sportsmanship displayed throughout the student body.

Students Begin Junior High Studies

Seventh grade students, as always, were very excited to enter Western Heights High School. Very few days passed without some disturbance from a seventh grader. The newcomers brought excitement but have adjusted well to junior high school life. The officers are: Jonnie Hightower, vice-president; Joni Revel, Student Council representative; Jan Zurline, Student Council representative; Gayla Beach, president; and Melanie Mann, Student Council representative.

Construction for the new addition to Western Heights was started during the winter in hopes that it would be finished for the next fall term.

Shirly Albright Girls' State

Shirly Albright, Western Heights senior, attended the 1967 session of Oklahoma Girls' State, May 27-June 3.

The purpose of this convention, held at the Oklahoma College of Liberal Arts in Chickasha, is to give outstanding young women from all parts of Oklahoma practical experience in citizenship and government. It also provides an opportunity for the girls to learn the mechanics of government. Most of all, each girl returns home with a clearer understanding and appreciation that is heritage of each citizen.

Dwayne Rymer Boys' State

Dwayne Rymer, Western Heights senior, attended the 1967 Boys' State convention May 27-June 3 at Central State College in Edmond, Oklahoma.

The conference informed the delegates of the functions of the city and state government.

Dewey Bartlett and George Nigh were two of the many distinguished guest speakers at the conference.

Boys chosen are sponsored by the American Legion.

ORGANIZATIONS

Western Heights High School Student Council is organized to promote citizenship, leadership, and democracy as well as student activities.

Citizenship is a pre-requisite for membership.

Leadership is contributed by the officers and members.

Students practice democracy by electing officers and representatives for various activities.

Activities include the bonfire at homecoming and selling candy for a Foreign Exchange student.

Student Council Democracy In Action

Students throughout the city visited Western Heights on the Student Council Visitation Day.

The high school band presented a wonderful and sincere effort in all school activities.

Band Presents Christmas Concert

Western Heights' band, under the direction of Mr. Jim Baker, has put many long hours in practicing for athletic events as well as for other school activities.

One of the main activities of the band this year was the presentation of its Christmas concert.

Mr. Jim Baker, band director, advises an eager junior high student.

The junior high band practices at home, as well as at school, to prepare for the coming high school years.

Stage Band Attends Brownwood Contest

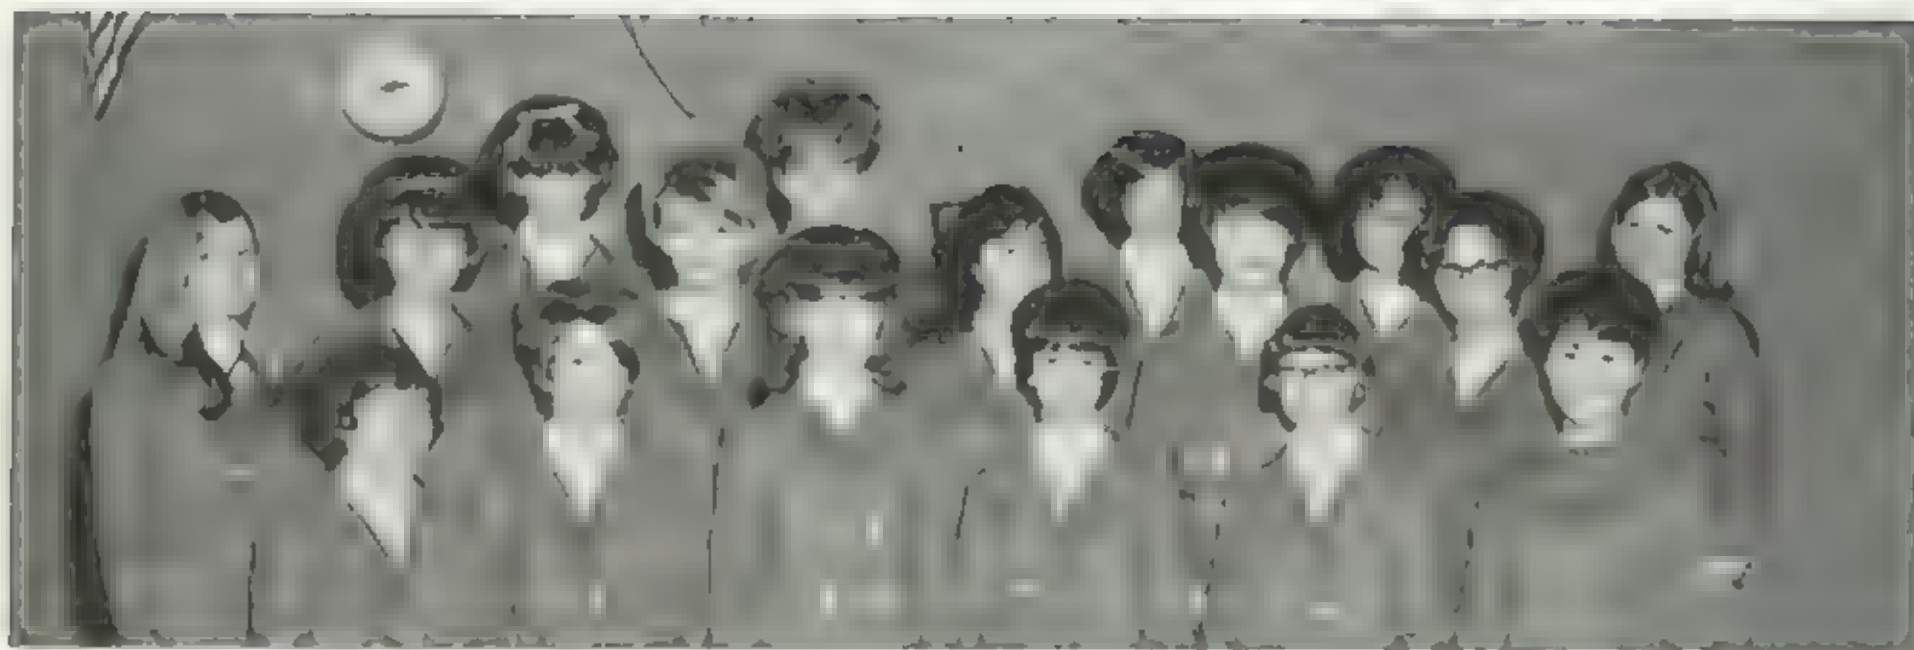

The Blue Angels, Western Heights stage band, proudly returned this year with a second place award from the Brownwood, Texas band contest.

Outstanding Twirlers Lead Band

Linda McFarland, Bunny Smith, Cindy Elsten, Lanette Mallory, Debbie Beettner, and Connie Seabourn are Western Heights' dependable twirlers.

High School Girls' Chorus

Chorus Entertains At School Assemblies

Membership in the Western Heights Girls Chorus, Boys Chorus, Mixed Chorus, and Ensemble represents a definite musical achievement. Few activities in the curriculum demand the extra effort and additional time given by members of these groups.

These groups' talent have shone brightly this year in the all school assemblies. All who saw these assemblies will affirm that our chorus is one of the best!

The high school trio consists of Linda Robins, sophomore; Sandra Hightower, junior; and Teena Rodgers, junior.

Language Clubs Understanding

Language clubs are centers of student activity in the language field. To say nothing of creating a healthy atmosphere for language study, the clubs provide an enjoyable background of fun and supplementary learning. Through these organizations, students seek out the national and social backgrounds of the tongues they study.

Language efforts at Western Heights consist of German and Spanish, and there is a hearty student support of both clubs.

Mr. And Miss W.H.H.S.

"Let's mini the mini skirts," was the motto of the Western Heights 1968 yearbook campaign. Candidates were chosen by a majority vote from each class.

Students voted for their favorite candidates when they purchased their yearbook.

Posters of girls with "mini" skirts were placed in the hall to signify how many yearbooks had been purchased. Each day the number sold was tallied. On a percentage basis, that amount was cut off the "mini" skirt. When the sales were over, the Seniors had won by a wide margin.

Ginny Holcomb and Ted McMahan emceed the 1967-68 yearbook coronation.

Brenda Beach and Paul Cain walk proudly to the Mr. and Miss W.H.H.S. throne.

Mr. and Miss W.H.H.S. and their attendants: First runners-up, Mike Fairholm and Vicki Standridge, Second runners-up, Larry Hammon and Carla Shinn.

Jr. High Annual King And Queen

We Salute . . .

Western Heights High School offers the following tribute to Roger Barnes and Jerry Johnson who were killed in the Vietnamese War. They will be remembered because of the contribution they made to Western Heights and because of the many friends who attended school with them.

We pay special tribute to their service in the interest of national defense. They paid the supreme sacrifice in order that we may continue to enjoy the blessings and opportunities found in the United States.

Roger Barnes was the first Western Heights graduate to be listed as killed in the Vietnamese War. Roger was a member of the 1966 graduating class.

The Barnes family first moved into our school district in April, 1966. Mr. Barnes was sent here from Orlando, Florida, to attend school at FFA. Roger, being a senior, received his diploma in May of 1966. The family returned this September and enrolled their children in our school again. His mother indicated that they were well pleased with our school system and that Roger was proud to have graduated from Western Heights.

Roger was a volunteer in the U.S. Marine Corps and was serving as a member of the Green Beret. He had just been sent overseas.

The family received word October 28 that Roger had been killed in action, and returned to Florida.

Jerry Johnson was the second gold star that was added to the Western Heights honor roll of soldiers killed in action in the Vietnam conflict. Jerry, the son of Mrs. Rene Johnson and the late Robert A. Johnson, was a graduate of the class of '66. He was killed in a land mine explosion only five days after his arrival in Vietnam.

"He was a good guy," expressed his many friends. He is remembered well by students and teachers. Mrs. Elizabeth Bandy, senior class advisor, will never forget his part in the 1966 Senior Play. The part of grandfather in "Tammy Tell Me True", came to life under his skillful characterization.

"You could look in Jerry's eyes and see a sparkle of honesty", commented Keith Stone, Jerry's history teacher. Jerry will long be remembered for his air of pleasantness and sincere willingness to learn.
